London, April 20.

On Saturday arrived the Mail from Holland, and Yesterday that from France.

Constantinople, March 12.

UPON an Express the Russian Resident received two Days ago from his Court, he went Yesterday with the French Ambassadour to the Grand Vizier, of whom he had an Audience: We hear that the said Express has brought with him new Proposals for an Accommodation, the Contents whereof are not yet known. The Dutch Ambassadour continues his Conferences with the Kaimacan, in order to bring about, if possible, the renewing of the Peace with the Algerines and other Corsairs of Barbary by the Mediation of the Porte. M. Dierling, the Emperour's Resident, has remonstrated to the Grand Vizier, that seeing his Imperial Majesty is obliged by his Treaties to support the Republick of Venice, he could not look with an indifferent Eye upon any new Pretensions the Porte should make upon that Republick. 'Tis assured that a Persian, formerly in the late Sophy's Service, and who since his coming higher found Means to get into the Grand Signior's Favour and Service, has attempted to Poison the Sultan with a Mef of Broth, but that the Poison did not work enough, since some Days after the Grand Signior was in a Condition to assist at the Divan: They add, that the Persian Officer has made his Escape, but whether it is not known; and we hear, that some of his Accomplices have been taken up. Some Deputies from the States and Provinces of Georgia, who have been here for these 10 Days past, have taken the Oath of Fidelity to the Grand Signior, as Vassals of the Ottoman Porte: They have also delivered the Presents from their Principals, which consist in extraordinary fine Persian Horses.

Turin, April 12. Two Days ago a Detachment of about 80 Slaves were sent from this Citadell under a Guard to Villafranca di Nizza, in order to recruit the Gang in the Gallies which are getting ready to embark the Forces for Sardinia. The Marquess de Suza has received his last Orders, and is preparing to set out for that Island in three or four Days. All his Sardinian Majesty's Regiments are commanded to hold themselves in a readiness to change their Quarters. Cardinal Polignac, who had been detained some Days at Lyons by a Fever, arrived here Yesterday, and was treated at Dinner by the Count de Vernon; after which he had the Honour of a private Audience of their Sardinian Majesties; and being still indisposed, he did not proceed on his Journey till this Morning. The Princess Louisa is entirely recovered, and begins to take the Air.

Amsterdam, April 24. The Elector of Cologne has resolved to have a Canal made from Munster to Billikerbrug, for having a Communication with Holland either by the River Ems that runs down to Emden, or by the River Veget that goes down to Swol, or perhaps by both of those Rivers. This Work is to begin the latter End of this Month, and his Electoral Highness will put the first Hand to it, which will be done with great Solemnity. This Prince is also resolved to have his Forces augmented, to have the Fortifications of his Fortresses repaired, and to demand of his Subjects the necessary Supplies for that End. We hear that Prince Maximilian of Hesse Cassel is shortly to return to Stockholm, in order to accompany their Swedish Majesties to Cassel.

Cambray, April 12. The Regulations to be observed by the Ministers in the Congress, and for preventing any Disorders among their numerous Retinues, having been finally adjusted and settled, and printed here in Latin and French, His Britannick Majesty's Ministers and those of the most Christian King, as Mediators, sent the Secretaries of the two respective Embassies with Copies thereof to the other Plenipotentiaries. On the 21st the Secretaries of all the Plenipotentiaries were sent to the Town-House, to collate the Copies of their respective full Powers, which being found perfect and attested by the Mediators, all the Ministers Plenipotentiaries met that Day for the first Time in Form at the Chamber in the Town House appointed for the General Conferences, and mutually exchanged Copies of their full Powers. They sat at a round Table, without any Manner of Precedency or Distinction, according to the forementioned Regulations. And after the Exchanging of the full Powers, it was declared by all the Ministers present, that they would not take upon them the Characters of Ambassadors Extraordinary, till at the Signing of the several Treaties which are here negotiating, by which divers Points of the Ceremonial that might obstruct and retard the Negotiation will be avoided. It was also agreed, that they should meet ordinarily on Tuesday and Friday in every Week; but when any particular Business required it, to meet any other Day.

Paris, April 26. The Comptroller General of the Finances has wrote by Order of the King and the Duke of Bourbon, to all the Convents in General, to give in an Account of all the Losses they have sustained by the Reduction of the Rents in 1720, in order to be in some Measure indemnified. Methods are taken to increase the River of Fuls, that passes by Dijon, in order to joyn it with the River Saonne. Count Dargenson has been all this while at Strasbourg, waiting for the Emperour's Consent to the Marriage of the Princess of Baden, whose Guardian he is. They say now that this Marriage will be celebrated at Nancy, the Duke of Lorraine, who is likewise one of her Guardians, having desired it. The Actions are risen again from 1600 Livres to 1800.

London, April 20.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased, upon the Resignation of the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Torrington, to appoint his eldest Son Pattee Byng, Esq; to succeed him in the Office of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy.

Whereas the killing and selling of Hogs-Flesh is become more frequent than formerly, and especially in the hottest Seasons of the Year; which Flesh so selling tends very much to the Prejudice of His Majesty's Subjects, by creating many dangerous Diseases; the Cause of which Diseases cannot easily be discovered. For Prevention of which, it hath been ordered in the By-Laws of the Company of Butchers, That no Person or Persons shall at any time kill Hogs, or put to Sale, utter, or vend, any of that Flesh, from the 1st of May to the 31st of October, under a certain Penalty therein contained; therefore this is published to prevent such evil Practices for the future.

The wonderful Elixir for the PALSY, famous in most Parts of Europe, and now recommended by the very best Physicians in London, as the most infallible Medicine in the World for that Disease; for it absolutely cures the Palsy almost to a Miracle, be it ever so bad, universal, or of many Years standing; and that after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; rendering those afflicted with it perfectly healthy, strong, and vigorous. It momentarily warms, comforts, and strengthens the enfeebled Nerves, and whole nervous System, revives the genuine Force and pristine Vigour of the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, fortifies and increases the animal Spirits, opens all Obstructions that hinder their free Egress to invigorate the weaken'd Parts, and immediately takes away all Numbness, Deadness, Shaking, or Trembling, to Admiration; quickly restoring the true and steady Use of the Limbs, and assuredly curing the Palsy, and all its Concomitant Symptoms, in a very short Time, as Thousands have experienced. All other Indispositions of the Nerves it certainly cures, and is neither disagreeable to take, or occasions the least Trouble or Disorder. It is to be had only at Mrs. Bell's, a Bookeller, at the Crofs Keys and Bible near the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The most severe RHEUMATISM, and all Rheumatick Pains in the Limbs, &c. whether fix'd or wandering, most certainly cured so as not to return again, by incomparable Chymical Drops, which without the least Trouble or Disorder entirely frees the Patient from that cruel Disease, in a most wonderful Manner; for they immediately restore a due and equal Circulation to the Fluids in the minutest Canals, by effectually attenuating and subduing the fatal LENTOR, or viscid Matter that occasions all the Mischief, inasmuch that all manner of Pain, tho' never so violent, or of many Years standing, presently vanishes, to the Admiration of all who have taken them, who could not believe it in the Power of Medicine to give such sudden and almost miraculous Ease, till happily convinced by their own Experience. Hundreds who had been miserably afflicted with the Rheumatism for many Years together, and after trying most other Remedies, despair'd of being ever relieved, have been almost instantly cured by these most excellent Drops, which were never so much as once known to fail. They are very agreeable to take, and for Safety might be given to a sucking Infant, without Inconvenience. Are sold only at Jacob's Coffee-house, against the Angel and Crown Tavern in Threadneedle-street, behind the Royal Exchange, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
